Board of Education

Members of the Board of School Trustees of Gary Public Schools are responsible for the efficient school system we have. Their job is to keep all school functions within the requirements stated in the Indiana state education laws. Members of the Board are appointed by the Mayor because they are recognized throughout the community as prominent, hard working civic leaders who are interested in the welfare and advancement of Gary Public Schools.

Senior Class History

It's finally here - June 8th, graduation night! High School is over, and now there are only memories left.

First we remember the capable officers we chose to lead us through our freshman year. They were Steve Djakovich, president; Mitch Kraus, vice-president; Linda Goodwin, secretary; and Judy High, treasurer. At our first high school dance, the "Holly Hop," the boys actually danced with the girls. The annual frosh play, "Seventeenth Summer," proved that the class of '53 had talent as well as spirit.

We remember our sophomore year with Richard Lasky as our second class president, Pat Gabriel was vice-president, Pat Ornich was secretary, and Ralph McFann was treasurer. "Starlight Fantasy" was the theme of our Sophomore Hop, a never to be forgotten dance.

Then came the joy of becoming "upperclassmen". Mitch Kraus was our very capable junior class president; Frank Nicksic, vice-president; Nancy Cook, secretary; and Jo Macaluso, treasurer. We shall always treasure the memory of the Junior-Senior Prom and the wonderful magic of that night.

We will always remember our Senior class officers - Joe Zimmerman, president; Jo Ann Todd, vice-president; Shirley Weber, secretary; and Marilyn Rittenhouse, treasurer. Our Senior activities included the Reception and Washington trip, the Prom, Baccalaureate, Convocation and Class Day.

Junior Class History

"It's not far off!" This is the thought that keeps running through the minds of the juniors as they complete their third year in high school.

Looking back over the history of this year's Juniors, we recall that they chose Don Strimbu as president, Charles Ventura as vice-president, Joanne Baker as secretary, and Don Doneff as treasurer to lead them through their freshman year. During that year Joan Sparks, Cookie Koss, Bob Davies, and Jack Cidulka showed their talent as they took the leading parts in their freshman play, "Indian Captive". The Freshman dance, as always was also a big success.

For leaders their sophomore year, they chose

Peter Plazony for president, Dorothy Kouvelas for vice-president, Roberta Mattingly for secretary, and Sam Uzelak for treasurer. "Icicle Spree" which was a name well chosen for their sophomore dance, was held on an icy winter night.

Another year rolled around and members of the class of '54 were upperclassmen at last. They chose Roberta Mattingly as president, Donna Pearman as vice-president, Alice Ann Goodpasture as secretary, and Peggy Coady as treasurer for junior officers. Naturally the highlight of their junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom held in April.

The Juniors of today are the Seniors of Tomorrow.

Sophomore Class History

"Upper-lower classmen" at last! This wonderful thought is uppermost in the minds of all the Sophomores this year.

Only last year, as Freshies, they chose four very deserving classmates to lead them through their first year in high school. These officers included James Tarpo as president, James Fattori as vice-president, Carolyn Smith as secretary, and Sandra Jackson as treasurer. Among their many successful activities was Freshman Week, their Frosh dance, "Snowball Jamboree", and their unforgettable play, "Meet Me In St. Louis."

To begin their Sophomore year off on the right foot, they chose Walter Smoot as president of their class, with Tom Kennedy as vice-president, James Morrone as secretary, and James Fattori as treasurer. And to climax their exciting sophomore year, they held their Soph Hop on a snowy January night.

Yes, the Class of '55 is well on its way!

Freshman Class History

The Freshman of '53 started their high school career by electing such competent officers as Charles Brown as president, Guy Camarata as vice-president, Beverly Edwards as treasurer, and Karen Wortley as secretary.

Next in the busy year of the freshies came the annual Freshman Week, sponsored by the Girls' Club. The "shy" boys and the "quiet" girls seemed to get along very well.

On February 6, the freshman party, "Cupid's Capers", was held in the main gym. Soft lights and sweet music helped make a memorable evening.

Finally, after much hair-pulling and long hours, the freshman play, "Best Foot Forward", was presented under the direction of Mrs. Mary Oppman. The show was a howling success.

Be patient, freshies, time will fly and you'll soon be seniors of '56.

Staff and editors hard at work

The magic hour! When the period begins at 2:05, it usually extends late into the night

Quill & Blade

Meanwhile, "To revise or not to revise" was the question uppermost in the mind of our copy editor, Donna McColly, as she rushed to and fro collecting new, old, and over-due copy.

The slogan of the staff soon became, "an editor's work is never done." If you don't believe it, just ask the student picture editors, Arlene Owen, Margie Boone, Jackie Kling, and Joan Ruggles. Pictures in one hand, and a pencil in the other, they checked and rechecked, arranged and rearranged the "photos" until they knew the entire student body for wards, backwards, and inside out, while faculty editor, Catherine Palakovic, raced down the hall to put a last-minute notice on the teachers' bulletin board. Sports editors, Joe Zimmerman and Larry Bound, broke all records collecting, rewriting and arranging the sports section.

Then to top it all, Sarah Athey, Carolyn Hall, and Mr. George Katz all developed the popular new "grey streak" in their hair. Could it be that the picture schedule had something to do with it?"

But did we holler or even complain? Well, if we did, it was only temporary. For believe it or not, out of all this confusion, and work, and many nights after school was born the new Annual, and we proudly present it to you today—the 1953 Quill and Blade

"I'm in love with you, Annual. No one else will do, Annual . . ." so goes the theme song of the 1953 Quill and Blade. Forsaking all others, the Annual staff set out, for better or for worse, to write and design, arrange and put together the first "yearly" Wallace yearbook—the 1953 Quill and Blade.

There's an old saying that two heads are better than one. This was especially true when the heads belonged to our Annual editor, Karen Emmett, and sponsor, Mrs. Kathryn Welsh. For days on end they worked frantically to develop the division pages and complete the "dummy," as Miss Marie Edwards, our business manager, sat counting "greenbacks" far into the night

ACTIVITIES

Student Council

"The Student Council meeting will now come to order." Every Wednesday morning at 8:20, these words are heard by the Student Council, which consists of one representative from each home room, plus the four officers elected from the student body. Under the able sponsorship of Miss Marie Edwards and Mr. William Vorwald, the Student Council carries out many projects for the betterment of the school.

The high light of the year is the Inaugural Ball, following an inauguration ceremony. The Council sponsors dances, carries out the SOS Humanity Drive, takes care of posters and the student bulletin board, hall order, and any problems which are brought up in council meetings.

"Always busy" could well be the motto of the Lew Wallace Girls' Club. The officers and council have a very full schedule, sponsoring at least one project a month, each related to a school activity.

The Teachers' Teas, which are held every Thursday after school, have been very successful this year. Besides offering relaxation for the teachers, these teas build a better student-teacher relationship.

Annual activities of Girls' Club include Freshman Week, the Freshman Potluck, the Suburban Conference, the Senior Reception, and a spring dance.

The highlight of the year for members of the F.T.A. is the formal induction held in October. New members are inducted at a very impressive candlelight ceremony. As a project a group of the members of the club visited National League of Education in Evanston.

Other activities of the club include ushering at teachers' conventions and attending annual Calumet F.T.A. picnic.

A comparatively new club at our school is White Cloud which was started for the purpose of promoting interest in the nursing field. The future nurses are visited at their regular meetings by speakers representing different hospitals in the Calumet area. Besides holding bi-monthly meetings the club co-sponsored a stag dance with the Audio-Visual Department and held a Christmas party.

The services provided by this department are innumerable. Motion pictures, slide projectors, tape recordings, TV and radio programs are all things which help to better our education. The Audio-Visual members have helped make the 1953 Quill and Blade possible with their fine photography. Sponsoring Lew Wallace's own radio station is their big project for 1953.

SPORTS

Football

The Wallace grid machine dented the victory column three times in nine starts during the '52 season. Three consecutive wins were over Emerson, Muncie Central and Gary Roosevelt. The winning streak began with a surprise upset over the Norsemen of Emerson with the score of 14 to 12. The Hornets' single wing attack invaded Muncie Central's home grounds by edging the Bearcats 21 to 19. The following week the grid men tamed the Roosevelt Panthers 19 to 13.

Wallace finished third in the city race with a two win, two loss, and one tie record.

FRESHMAN AND RESERVE FOOTBALL

The Freshmen had an average grid season coming through with three wins and three losses. This year's squad consisted of good material, and should prove a threat in coming years.

The Reserves on the other hand slid under the 500 average with two wins and four losses.

Philanth
"Mama"
"54"

Come on, Hornets, show your might,
Yea, team, fight, fight, fight!
Send the ball across the goal line;
We want a touchdown sure this time.
Rab! Rab! Rab!

Winning or losing we will stand by you.
Our loyal spirits, boys, will see you through
So fight as did our teams of old;
Defend the black and gold

Hail, Lew Wallace, our true,
Staunch and loyal too,
We will hold your memory dear,
Making the best of all we do
To your ideals for ever we will hold,
Follow the standard of the black and gold
Steady on hand, our friendship true,
We pledge our faith to you

HAIL TO LEW WALLACE

Hail to Lew Wallace,
Fight for his name,
Keep his colors flying,
Goody by his name,
O' Rab Rab!
We're loyal, Lew Wallace,
To us you'll 's be dear,
And to colors of black and gold,

IN MEMORY OF BOB SMITH

Lew Wallace High School has lost a fine student, and this hectic, troubled world of ours has lost an up-and-coming citizen

The Creator of all men, Who is both the Giver and Taker of life, has plucked from our midst Bob Smith, a young man who was enjoying perhaps the best years of his life, and was bringing joy into the hearts of so many around him

Now, all that are left are memories

The memory of a son born to two very capable and deserving parents, and about whom every dream of those parents revolved.

The memory of a tiny tot who started school some twelve years ago.

The memory of a grade-school boy, struggling with his tables of multiplication, loved by teachers and his fellow pupils.

The memory of a high-school freshman, overjoyed by the fact that he was a member of the dance committee.

The memory of an enterprising young musician who began his own band, "The Moonbeams," which became a keynote of entertainment at high school social functions.

The memory of a Senior, active in every sort of school function; a popular boy; a swell friend.

The memory of a talented musician, looking forward to college—and perhaps a college band of his own.

The memory of that fateful night, when the life of a young man—a son, a brother, a student, a friend—was snuffed out.

Yes, Smitty is gone, in body. But with all who knew him remains the spirit of a fine lad—one whom we shall never forget.

IN MEMORIAM..

LIGHT SHINING OUT OF DARKNESS

*God moves in a mysterious way
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.*

*Judge not the Lord by feeble sense,
But trust him for his grace;
Behind a frowning providence
He hides a smiling face.*

*Blind unbelief is sure to err,
And scan his work in vain;
God is his own interpreter,
And he will make it plain.*

Dear Cat,

Well here's too my best Buddie! We've really had some crazy times together so don't forget any of them! It seems we always get along & I know in the future it will be the same. I wish you all the luck in the world with Rich because he really is a fine guy! (and when you get married I'm living with you so fine Hallett will be fine enough to sleep on the couch!) This year we got caught ditching but we stuck together so I didn't mind the "H---" I got! Always stay as ~~sweet~~ sweet as you are now and just remember if you ever get troubles just come to me & I'll help you out.

P.S.

You shouldn't make fun of Paul's nose because you know it's cute! (Ha! Ha!)

Love Saint

Dear Jan,
 Well, well, lucky me I get
 to start on a new page!
 I sure do want to the know your letter in the future, I think you're really smart!
 Love
 Sandy

Dear Sandy,
 Lots of love in your coming school years.
 I hope you make good it,
 Your classmate,
 Jim Gullford

Dear Sandra,
 Good luck with Rick! I said that cuz
 I know you will have it.
 You're loads of fun + am looking forward to 2 more years of it.
